

Why Sanderson Associates?

Sanderson Associates best value, objective, experienced, quality solutions for all your highway, transportation and water engineering needs

Supporting you through ALL aspects of access planning to deliver cost effective solutions to satisfy the planning requirements for your development to proceed.

From giving an initial view on the site to Planning Appeals and site supervision during Highway construction works, Sanderson Associates deliver objective, bespoke advice to ensure best value for money solutions.

- Highway Planning Application Advice
- Highway Expert Witness
- Transport Assessments
- Travel Plans
- Sustainable Transport Schemes
- Road & Sewer Design
- Flood Risk Assessments
- Traffic Signal Design

24 Years in business delivering experience and tailored advice to our Clients needs.

Over 6200 client schemes, with over 96% of our Clients returning to us with further work on subsequent schemes.

Covering all aspects of our work, since 2009 we achieved over a 97% success rate on schemes that we have worked on for our Clients.

Sanderson Associates were awarded the SME Award in the 'Construction Sector Network Best Practice Awards' - Yorkshire & Humber Construction Awards 2010.

What our Clients say:

'We have no hesitation in recommending the services of Sanderson Associates to any third party'

'Sanderson Associates have been and continue to be an important team player in our development program and their work is a necessary part in ensuring that our new and improved stores are delivered to our deadlines and cost estimates.'

'Compliments to Sanderson Associates for their quality of work and communications during this project'

'Sanderson Associates have always answered our queries quickly with the utmost professionalism. They have been a massive support for us and we could not have ever asked for a better service.'

'The assistance from Sanderson's was invaluable in providing specialist traffic and vehicle management consultancy services to facilitate this major new development at our Fire Service headquarters site.'

'Thank you for your attention to a very small project which assisted in securing the planning consent applied for.'

More Testimonials can be viewed on our website.

Sanderson Associates delivers experience and knowledge from top to bottom – Managing Director Alison France has over 27 years experience in the industry, supported by 23 committed technical and support staff all with specialist knowledge to provide you with the knowledge and experience to manage your requirements through the planning process.

Our experienced staff are sourced from Local Government, Traffic Management, Water Management, Transportation Planning and Delivery ALL providing you with the best value advice and planning delivery whatever your scheme in the UK, Isle of Man and Ireland.

What our Industry says:

'Sanderson Associates are the leading Independent Highways Consultant in both Transport Planning and Planning' – New Civil Engineers May 2010 Consultants File.

Sanderson Associates deliver for you and your scheme offering complete highway planning, transportation, modelling and flood risk solutions.

To discuss your requirements please contact us directly on 01924 844080, e-mail us at mail@sandersonassociates.co.uk or use our secure online request a fee quote form at our website: www.sandersonassociates.co.uk